Gala evening at Pretoria Academy (formerly Pretoria police college)

Over 120 guests ranging from serving and retired police officers to generals and dignitaries. This must be THE event of the IPA calendar this year. The food was excellent and compliments must go to the SAPS staff who prepared the meals. A special mention must go to the SAPS band whose music was perfect for the occasion.

A lot of effort was put into the organisation of the gala evening and credit must go to Johan VD Merve, Wilna Curtis, Denn Alberts xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx for their "Going the extra mile" to make this event a memorable one.

So, instead of writing a long story of the evening I believe that "A picture can say a thousand words" so here are a few thousand words.

The tables and the layout were exceptionally done with ample space between guests.

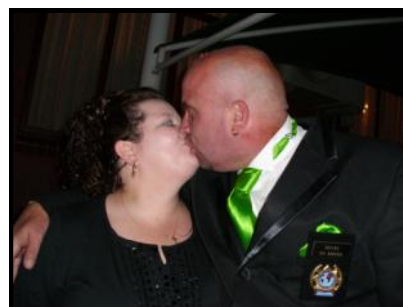

The food was prepared by the SAPS themselves and was well prepared and appetizing to the palate.

Flower bouquets were on each table as well as bottles of wine

Host for the evening, Denn Alberts and his beautiful wife Welma

Looks like Love is in the air.

Remember
all proceeds go to charity

This amazing bottle of wine which was signed by the wine-maker himself was won in the R50 lottery organised by Eugene Wait and R2000 was made, it was then given back. Where It was then auctioned off for an astounding sum of R15,000 and Coin security are now the proud owners

The International police association of South Africa would like to say thank you to the following persons and sponsors for their help, dedication and sponsorship in making this event possible.

Lost and Found

I am starting up a new section where IPA members can try and find friends from their old police days.

Here is how it works.

You give me your name and contact details,

( i.e., either/and email - phone number ) plus your IPA number etc

You give me the persons name and last known location and I will print these in this newsletter.

If the person responds he/she will send their details to your e mail address.

Remember, this newsletter also goes to the UK, Belgium, Ireland and lots of other places so the chances of finding someone are quite good.

You will just send me an e mail saying you have made contact then I can delete the entry to make room for other enquiries.

Sorry, only for IPA members at the moment.

Easy.
